

Success Declaration

written Jewel Diamond Taylor

I am breathing in new health, gratitude, peace and strength. I have the tenacity to solve my challenges and create my goals. I declare and decree that I am a conqueror, victorious, wise, successful and blessed.

I am covered by the Lord's sovereign power, peace and provision to endure any challenges, enjoy life and excel in my purpose. I feel worthy of receiving respect, peace, love and the abundant life.

I follow through on what I start. I am worthy, loving and capable of achieving my personal definition of success. This is a brand new day to live without apology and to live with gratitude, courage, hope, love, self-control and faith. I am growing each day with inner strength to overcome the challenges of life.

I'm learning everyday to forgive myself and draw emotional boundaries around those who have hurt me as I release my anger and forgive them. I am taking better care of myself. When I experience the "joy stealers" of depression, guilt, low self-esteem, clutter, fear, doubt, temptation or procrastination ... I am willing to recognize and resolve my unhealthy patterns. I can come out of any cave of dark depression and into the light to enjoy the many blessings and promises of God for me and my family.

I'm learning that all relationships are teachers. I am developing wise judgment and boundaries to know which people in my life are the lifters and which ones are the leaners. I am using my time, talent and treasures in better ways because I realize that each day is a gift.

Today I am focused on my goals and priorities because I am learning how to keep the main thing...THE MAIN THING!

I can say "no" to unnecessary demands of my time, money and energy.

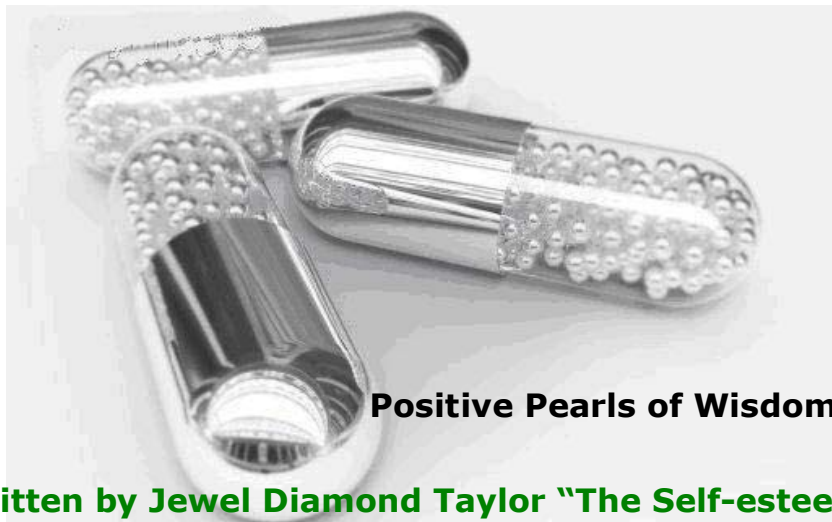

I can say "yes" to; God, success, my destiny and my well-being.

I am open to receive "unusual blessings of favor."

I am too blessed to be stressed. I see and feel something new in myself and in those around me. My possibilities and potential for success are unlimited. I am discovering the truth that sets me free to be more whole, relaxed, trusting, active and optimistic. I am always in the right place at the right time with the right outlook. My very presence impacts others in a positive way. I am attracting into my life people and circumstances to take my life to the next level of awareness and abundance. Those things that use to tempt and tear me apart, no longer hold so much power over me because I am learning each day how to stay in the light of God's power, peace, protection, provision and a positive state of mind. This is a brand new day and I will be glad in it. Yes, there will be issues out of my control and yet opportunities to grow in my faith and courage. No matter what challenges or changes I must face today, this is the day the Lord has made. All my needs are met. I am still here and there is nothing that is going to happen today that my God and I together can't handle.

I will do my best to reduce my stress and until further notice...God is in charge.

Your prescription from the Self-esteem Dr. is to read this a minimum of twice a day. In case of emergency read it 3 times a day to build up your immune system against the attack of doubt, fear, procrastination or stress.
